

"Springwood," for most of his young life.

While Governor of New York and as President, Mr. Roosevelt frequented Springwood often and entertained many dignitaries, including Winston Churchill and King George VI.

Franklin D. Roosevelt was involved in the planning and construction of the Presidential library at the site. The F.D.R. Library is the only Presidential library that was used by a sitting President for official duty.

F.D.R. was intent on preserving his papers and mementos for future generations to cherish and study. Included in his collection are 44,000 books, photographs, Roosevelt's White House desk and chair, and his collection of naval prints, models, and many paintings.

The F.D.R. Library became the site of the broadcast of Mr. Roosevelt's popular fireside chats, and President Roosevelt would regularly hold conferences with world leaders in his personal study.

This legislation enjoys widespread support of the National Park Service, the National Archives and Records Administration, the town of Hyde Park, the Eleanor Roosevelt Site at Val-Kill, the Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt Institute, Historic Hudson, and the Hudson River Valley Greenway.

All of these organizations and communities have dedicated their time and expertise to ensure that this visitor center becomes a reality, and I thank them all for their support.

I look forward to seeing many Americans and all of those who would travel and venture to Hyde Park, New York, to seeing the visitor center finally become a reality at the Franklin D. Roosevelt Historic Site.

Mr. SAXTON. Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. SAXTON) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 1104.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. SAXTON) and the gentleman from California (Mr. GEORGE MILLER) each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. SAXTON).

Mr. SAXTON. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, H.R. 695 would direct the Secretary of Agriculture and the Secretary of the Interior to convey the administrative site in San Juan County, New Mexico, to San Juan College.

H.R. 695 a bill to direct the Secretary of Agriculture and the Secretary of the Interior to convey an administrative site in San Juan County, New Mexico, to San Juan College, was introduced by our colleague the honorable gentleman from New Mexico (Mr. UDALL).

This legislation will require the Secretary to convey a 10-acre parcel known as the "Old Jicarilla Site" to San Juan college. The Forest Service no longer requires its use and has not occupied the site for several years.

The bill will also require the site to be used for educational and recreational purposes. Our good friend the gentleman from New Mexico (Mr. UDALL) has done a great job on this legislation. I urge all my colleagues to support its passage under the suspended rules.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. GEORGE MILLER of California. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of H.R. 695 by the gentleman from New Mexico (Mr. UDALL) which would direct the Secretary of the Interior to convey approximately 20 acres of both Forest Service and Bureau of Land Management land, including real property on the land, on the Carson National Forest in San Juan County, New Mexico, to San Juan College in Farmington, New Mexico.

The "Old Jicarilla Site," as it is known, contains a surplus and abandoned ranger station. The college would pay for all lands in accordance with the Recreation and Public Purposes Act and use the site for educational and recreational purposes.

The bill represent a bipartisan effort both in the House and the Senate. I urge my colleagues to support it.

I would like to take the time to congratulate the gentleman from New Mexico (Mr. UDALL) on his sponsorship of this piece of legislation in an effort to get it passed.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. SAXTON. Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. SAXTON) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 695, as amended.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.
